The Lighthouse

The old lighthouse was modern for its time. Now though, many years of water and wind had taken their toll. The beach community met to decide what could be done to remodel the building. As the meeting went on, the moderator listened to ideas about how they could modify the lighthouse but still use it. It was their way during the night. The beach community decided to tear it down. The moderate (most popular vote) was the moderator. She was grateful that the lighthouse was new paint, and new windows.

THE TEACHER NEXT DOOR

At The Teacher Next Door, we know that you strive to be an effective reading teacher while maintaining a healthy work-life balance. In order to do that, you need resources that are impactful, yet simple. The problem is that most reading resources and curriculums out there are far from simple. The pages upon pages of daily lesson plans are just plain overwhelming. We believe teachers should be living their lives outside the classroom, and not spending hours lesson planning and searching for resources.

Now, more than ever, teachers need space to be themselves which is why we create and support teachers with timesaving tips and standards-aligned resources.

We can't wait to help you get started.

A NOTE ABOUT OUR CEO AND FOUNDER: Jenn Larson is the creator and founder of The Teacher Next Door. With over 20 years of experience in the classroom and a Master's Degree in Curriculum and Instruction, Jenn specializes in creating resources for upper elementary students. Her goal is to support teachers by providing ready-to-use resources that target standards and help students grow in amazing ways.
