GREEK AND LATIN VOCABULARY cred

Passage Practice: Read the story and answer the questions.

My Aunt

My aunt was graduating with her nursing degree this Saturday. It was an incredible accomplishment for her! She started college a few years ago after being accepted by a credible university. Since college was so expensive, she had to pay for much of it with credit. Soon though, she had to pay for a job at a few hospitals. I asked her how she got the job. She said that she didn't want to do a job with no experience. Her top pick though was a job at a hospital. Some of her friends said it was a good idea, but my aunt wasn't credulous. She knew her own mind and what she would buy first after finding a job. She tried to pay back her creditors as quickly as she could. Next, she would love a new car.

Questions and Clues: Use the word bank to complete the sentences. Not all words will be used.

THE TEACHER NEXT DOOR

At The Teacher Next Door, we know that you strive to be an effective reading teacher while maintaining a healthy work-life balance. In order to do that, you need resources that are impactful, yet simple. The problem is that most reading resources and curriculums out there are far from simple. The pages upon pages of daily lesson plans are just plain overwhelming. We believe teachers should be living their lives outside the classroom, and not spending hours lesson planning and searching for resources.

Now, more than ever, teachers need space to be themselves which is why we create and support teachers with timesaving tips and standards-aligned resources.

We can't wait to help you get started.
