READING CENTERS FAQ

Which classrooms would benefit from a Point of View Reading Center like this?

This Point of View reading center is for you if your reading curriculum is lacking when it comes to focused reading skills practice. If you'd like to stop endlessly searching for reading activities that align with this reading standard and are looking for consistent, easy-to-use reading games, this resource is for you.

What age is best suited for this Reading Center?

This reading center is aligned to 3rd grade reading standards. It can also be used with older students in need of extra practice and support or for enrichment for younger students. Teachers, homeschool educators, and tutors have used the materials successfully.

How can this resource be used in my classroom?

This resource is extremely versatile. Many teachers will use the reading center as part of their weekly literacy stations. You can also use the reading center for whole-class games, small groups, partner practice, exit slips, or test prep. Our best recommendation is to use them for independent or partner work while you meet with small groups to differentiate.

WHO IS TTND?

At The Teacher Next Door, we know that you strive to be an effective reading teacher while maintaining a healthy work-life balance. In order to do that, you need resources that are impactful yet simple. The problem is that most reading resources and curriculums out there are far from simple. The pages upon pages of daily lesson plans are just plain overwhelming. We believe teachers should be living their lives outside the classroom and not spending hours lesson planning and searching for resources.

Now, more than ever, teachers need space to be themselves which is why we create and support teachers with timesaving tips and standards-aligned resources.

We can't wait to help you get started.

A NOTE ABOUT OUR CEO AND FOUNDER: Jenn Larson is the creator and founder of The Teacher Next Door. With over 20 years of experience in the classroom and a Master's Degree in Curriculum and Instruction, Jenn specializes in creating resources for upper elementary students. Her goal is to support teachers by providing ready-to-use resources that target standards and help students grow in amazing ways.

1. What is the central message?*

Central Message: Traditional literature
The Golden Goose: Aesop's Fable
Once there lived a Man who owned a very special Goose. Each day the Man visited the nest, he found that the Goose had laid a beautiful, solid gold egg. The Man took the golden eggs to market and was able to sell them for a very high price. Although the Man had plenty of money, he was not happy. He wanted the Goose to lay more than a single egg a day, so that he could become rich faster!
One day, while counting his money, the Man decided that he would kill the Goose, so he could get all of the eggs at once! The next day, the Man killed the Goose and cut it open. Looking inside, he realized that there were no other eggs, and now the Goose was dead.

A. Kindness is important.
 B. Greed is never rewarded.
 C. Having courage helps you succeed.

LOGICAL CONNECTIONS!
Mary Louisa Hayes McCauly was born in 1744. When she was only a teenager, she married William Hayes, who fought against England in the Revolutionary War. She is best known for carrying pitchers of water to thirsty soldiers on the battlefield. Molly was often used as a nickname for women named Mary. The soldiers nicknamed her Molly Pitcher, since they asked for water saying, "Molly Pitcher!"
