Passage Practice: Read the story and answer the questions.

Grandma Storyteller

I was reading a science fiction book (my favorite genre) when my mom announced that we were going to Grandma's house to visit my Grandma. She was always genial and fun to generate a person's name was enough to generate an album cover made of? My Grandma enjoyed sharing stories about her life, what cars they drove, and what music they listened to. I wanted to learn more about the genesis of our family. I knew my Grandma had studied our family tree, so I asked her to chat, my Grandma took out an old photo album. The first page had a family tree full of names. I could tell right away by looking at the straight lines in eyes that the Tasca family had strong genes. As I read, Grandma started the first story.

5TH GRADE
THE TEACHER NEXT DOOR

At The Teacher Next Door, we know that you strive to be an effective reading teacher while maintaining a healthy work-life balance. In order to do that, you need resources that are impactful, yet simple. The problem is that most reading resources and curriculums out there are far from simple. The pages upon pages of daily lesson plans are just plain overwhelming. We believe teachers should be living their lives outside the classroom, and not spending hours lesson planning and searching for resources.

Now, more than ever, teachers need space to be themselves, which is why we create and support teachers with timesaving tips and standards-aligned resources.

We can't wait to help you get started.
